Nominations Sought for Historic Preservation Award

Nominations due April 1st

The Town of Cedarburg is now accepting nominations for its annual Preservation Award. The Preservation Award recognizes historic structures in the Town of Cedarburg that have been recently restored or preserved. Nominations may be made by the owners of a historic structure or by friends, relatives or neighbors.

Last year, the Preservation Award was given to Roger & Fran Bentz for their farmstead, located at 1051 Wauwatosa Road. The Bentz farmstead was purchased by Roger's great-great-grandfather in 1865 upon returning from service in the Civil War. The property includes the home, main barn, smokehouse, and milk house.

Nomination forms can be picked up at Town Hall (1293 Washington Ave.) or printed off the Town website by clicking on this link. Nominations should be dropped off, faxed or mailed to Town Hall by Tuesday, April 1st.
