Cedarburg Little League & Milwaukee Brewers Honor Gary Vandenberg *Field Naming Ceremony June 7th

On Thursday, June 7th, field 1 at the Fields at Five Corners, home of Cedarburg Little League, will be renamed Gary Vandenberg Field in memory of the long time Director of Grounds for the Milwaukee Brewers.

Vandenberg, a Cedarburg resident who maintained the fields at County Stadium and Miller Park for over 30 years, including more than 20 years as Brewer's Director of Grounds, passed away last fall. He was respected throughout Major League Baseball. The MLB Groundskeeper Hall of Fame trophy was named in Vandenberg's honor earlier this year.

The field naming ceremony will be held at 6:45pm and feature special guests Lauri Vandenberg, Gary's wife, and Brewers General Manager Doug Melvin. The Fields at Five Corners is located at 1220 Five Corners Drive, just west of the Five Corners intersection and south of STH 60.

The Vandenberg field naming ceremony is the highlight of Opening Day festivities for Cedarburg Little League. Games will be held before (5:30pm) and after the ceremony (7:10pm) to help kick off the league's third season. Cedarburg Little League is an award winning, self-sufficient program with over 440 participants in softball and baseball.
